Airmen Seen Bailing Out But Bush Hunt Fruitless

Provincial police led a search party into the region between here and Dog Creek, about 15 miles south, after Joe Place, a rancher at Dog Creek, reported he and his two daughters had seen the alarm dropping from the skies near there.

Pierce's report followed others

...killed in an automobile accident near here today that injured seven other persons.

OTTAWA, July 28.—Ronald Mc-Lachlan, veteran Canadian prospector and one of the first to follow

...operating between here and near Port Couillard had been made in the night.

Officials and a section ha-found railway ties and rocks gilion the right of way.

Police said they were searching for a youth who, they believe, m-have been implicated in the wrestling attempt.

THE STORY SO FAR

Carol Clayton, engaged to wed her cousin, Harry, a wealthy Chicagoan, had been "bought" by a man named "Duke" who had lured her to his father's home in the country. She had been taken to Philadelphia, with the reason given that she was to be married to her father, in all but name, and all without his knowledge. She was now in the hands of "Duke."

Gordon: "Fritzie shot at him accidentally."

"Not that I can think of," he said, "and even if I had, as he was engaged to me on the basis of paper, and even from the table."

When the three of them were alone, Duke spoke.

"You and I, Fritz, that girl ought to be married."

20,000 WATCH HELL DRIVERS CHEAT DEATH

Ruggedness and Safety Of Dodge and Plymouth Cars Demonstrated

More than 20,000 thrill-starved Edmontonians crammed into the grandstand and race-course to witness the exhibition rounds Saturday afternoon in which Warren Rogers and Tommy Martin, death-defying "Hell Drivers" gave their automobiles built by the Chrysler Corporation of E. J. Dodge Limited a "ride" which was a real test of their ruggedness.

The two death-defying drivers raced Plymouth and Dodge cars through burning barriers, rolled over and over at top speed, careened around corners at 100 miles an hour, and flung through space to end crashing 100 feet from where they took off.

And from 20,000 throats came a single mighty cry of relief when the two drivers, men and cars, crashed through safety—a sight which was a real test of their ruggedness.

More than 20,000 thrill-starved Edmontonians crammed into the grandstand and race-course to witness the exhibition rounds Saturday afternoon in which Warren Rogers and Tommy Martin, death-defying "Hell Drivers" gave their automobiles built by the Chrysler Corporation of E.
